MEMO: United Way Campaign

As postal employees we are fortunate in many ways to have secure employment in such a volatile economy. With many working people out of work, and many others “underemployed”, I am writing to ask for your support of the United Way 2010 campaign.

For over 60 years, the AFL-CIO has partnered in both national and locally based United Way efforts, focusing on education, income, and health related issues. The United Way is working hard to ensure that high-quality human services are available in times of need.

United Way recruits people and organizations who bring the passion, expertise, and resources needed to get things done. Through our partnership, United Way invites you to be a part of the social change America needs so desperately. You can give, you can advocate, and you can volunteer.

Please join me in supporting the 2010 United Way campaign so that others may benefit from your generosity.
